

NA Indoor Championship Report 2013 (15 January 2013)

Eight new CBPs – it was Amy Williams (Sale H) who began this haul of CBPs which matched the number set in 2012. Williams set a new CBP in the U17W TJ with 11.95m and also took gold in the

LJ. Leo Rowley (Rotherham H) followed this with 13.90m in the U15B SP. Scott Hall (Gateshead H) set a superb PB and CBP of 14.72m in the U20M TJ. Not satisfied with just one CBP Hall returned on Sunday to claim the LJ title with 7.20m a big, new PB – the furthest he had previously jumped was 6.75m. On the track the first CBP came in the women's 60m where Annabelle Lewis (Kingston-upon-Hull) defeated the defending champion Louise Bloor (Trafford AC) and clocked 7.39. Day 1 Results

Day 2 Ellie Stevens (Birchfield H) took control of the women's 3000m and came home in a new CBP of 9.40.47. In the U20W PV Sarah McKeever (Trafford AC) bettered the previous CBP of 3.50m, set by another Trafford athlete Clare Neve in 2004, with a clearance at 3.60m. Greg Beard (NEB) destroyed the CBP in the men's SP. It had stood to Jamie Williamson (City of Sheffield) at 17.50m from 2007. Beard rewrote the record books with 18.59m and in so doing improved on his previous PB of 18.21m. Williamson was also in tremendous form throwing 18.29m for silver and a new PB. Day 2 Results

Other highlights included double gold medallists: Kristie Edwards (City of Sheffield) repeated her 2012 sprint double victory in the U17W 60m and 200m. GB U20 international Dannish Walker-Khan (Birchfield H) stamped his authority on both the men's 60m and 200m, though in the latter he had to hold off a fierce challenge from Chris Criag (Sale H)

There were also several very hotly contested finals during the weekend that resulted in a blanket finish. In the U20W 60m Maegan Taylor (Kingston-upon-Hull) took gold in 7.74 with silver medallist Rachel Highfield (Gateshead H) given the same time and Sophie Riley (Preston H) 3rd in 7.78. In the U17M 200m Tom Somers (City of York) went through the line shoulder-to-shoulder with Ryan Gorman (Notts AC). It was Somers who was given the nod to add to his 60m gold on Day 1.
