

Vivien Lane

It is with sadness that we announce the death of popular Sheffield Track Referee Vivien Lane who passed away peacefully on 31st May 2009 at home amongst her friends and family after a long battle against cancer.

Saturday 13th June has been provisionally set aside for the 'Celebration' of her life. Every effort has been made to take into account both her wishes and convenience for all her family and friends in terms of holidays, necessity to travel, exams, work, availability of her parish priest, crematorium and 'post formalities' venue, which In accordance with her categoric wishes it is to be a 'fun' affair with a Parisian Theme!

Vivien also asked that no one should be in mourning, but to wear something bright and cheerful! Details are as follows:

- Requiem Mass at 10 am at St William's Church, Ecclesall Rd, Sheffield
- Followed by Cremation at Hutcliffe Wood Crematorium
- Afterwards at a venue to be advised for a rip roaring party at Vivien's specific request
- Flowers most welcome, or, donations to Marie Curie Nurses care of the Funeral Directors who are G & M Lunt of 1-13 Camping Lane Sheffield.
